

Q. But I am healthy? Why should I care?

A. This may sound strange but it is true. Everyone who is a patient today had the same words to say a few months or a few years ago. Get the message.

Good news is that you are healthy as of today. Question is how to stay healthy that you do not become a patient in the future? That is where we can work with you to help you achieve that goal.